

2 Samuel 11:1-15

King David does not act as a good king, instead he uses his power and authority to get what he wants, regardless of how that affects others and where it leads.

Sometimes, like King David, we want what we haven't got, even when we have a lot.

Jesus love Write

Think of a time when your choices have caused pain to someone else. Write a prayer, telling God about it and asking for forgiveness. This is called confession. David later confesses his wrongdoings in the psalms.

Dear God

Draw!

Can you think of something you'd like but can't have? Draw it here.

Puzzle

Match the ways to behave with their opposites. Then, circle the good choices that help us to live peacefully.