2 Thessalonians 3:6-13

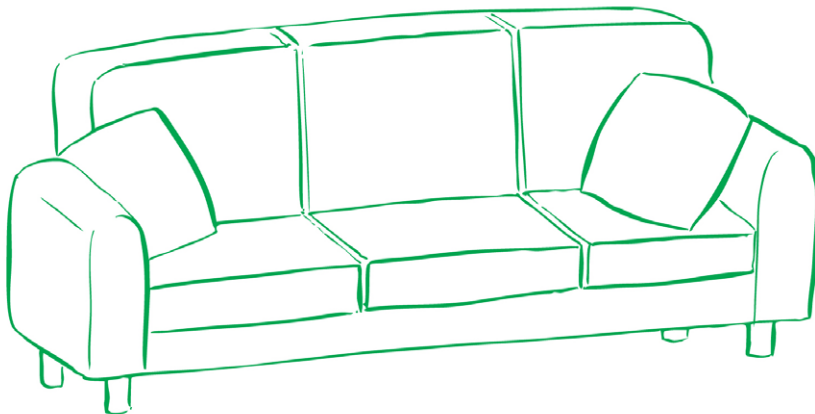

Paul celebrates those who work for their living, who are not lazy and keep doing what is right.

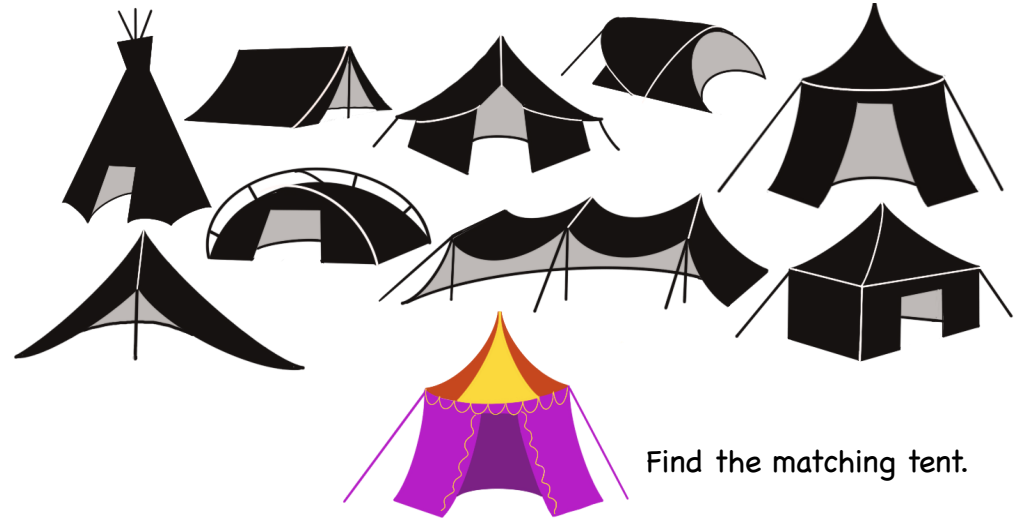

In Thessalonica, people share their food, but some Christians have become lazy and selfish.

Jesus says
Write

It's nice to relax. But what could you do to be helpful this week? Write your ideas on the sofa.

So that he could keep sharing the good news about Jesus, Paul made tents for a living.

Find the matching tent.

Who works hard in your community? Decorate a cake to celebrate their efforts.
